Dear Sir:

A) 1) We received your letter of September 3, No. D1529/encl 2, on October 23 and shall make every effort to obtain the price quotations and delivery dates for the machinery listed.

2) We believe that in the future, negotiations of this type can be accomplished very much more quickly if you will communicate with us by Air Mail. For example, six weeks have already been consumed merely in communicating your request to us by Sea Mail. We wish to call your attention to the fact of the reduction of the Air Mail rate which goes into effect in the U. S. A. on November 1, 1946. This of course may not be reciprocal and you may be obliged to pay your established rate on all air mail. However, as we pointed out, the saving in time is well worth the extra expenditure.

Yours very truly,

THE MYSORE COMPANY
